

		Luke Steffen	Kelly Oh	Nate Gamble	Jay Choi	Valeria Martinez
Communication	Stays in contact with other team members.	4	5	4	5	5	Some forgetting to check Slack
	Stays on topic during meetings.	5	5	5	5	5	We have been more consistent about using our trello board to record what is done and what needs to be done in our meetings
	Deals with conflict openly and respectfully.	5	5	5	5	5	Everyone has been presenting their ideas and suggestions well and we seem to be melding more as a group
Contribution	Finds and fills a useful role on your project.	5	5	5	5	5	Jay and Luke have been very helpful in the database construction while everyone else has been working on improving the various activities and app appearance
	Does their share of the work. (relative percentage)	22.00%	18.66%	18.66%	22.00%	18.66	Luke and Jay seem to have the bulk of it this round with the database construction, although everyone was helpful and focused during lab 9 when we needed to figure out a new concept (using the google cloud database system)
	Steps in to help others when needed.	5	4	5	5	5	Luke and Nate are both still helpful if someone forgets github commands or to update their trello time. Luke has been adding some small but helpful improvements throughout the app, like making the password appear as dots
Engagement	Shows up on time (or makes alternate arrangements).	5	5	5	5	5	Nate and Luke missed a few meetings and did not communicate that they wouldn't be there. Jay also missed lab 9 but offered to help out more afterward
	Meets deadlines.	5	5	5	5	5	There was one week where we all fell off track a bit but I think we have recovered
	Is passionate!	5	5	5	5	5	Everyone in the group is getting excited to see the app come together and begin to gain functionality
